The Patrick Henry Announces Final Public Sale of Landmark Hotel Treasures To Benefit Goodwill and Habitat for Humanity

January 19, 2010 – The Patrick Henry in downtown Roanoke, announces the final public sale of items from the historic landmark hotel. The huge event will be held at the Roanoke Civic Center: Special Events Center on Saturday, January 23 from 9am to 5pm and Sunday, January 24 from 10am to 4pm.

The two-day sale will feature traditional and art deco furniture from the guest rooms, as well as one of a kind furniture items, antiques, artwork, lamps, keys, and many other items. A silent auction, featuring more than 30 signature items and antiques, from the hotel will begin on Saturday and will end at 2pm on Sunday. All items must be removed from Civic Center at time of purchase.

One-of-a-kind items featured in the silent auction:

Carousel Couch from the Lobby
Grand and Upright Pianos
“Haunted” Room Keys
Lamp from the Governor's Suite

Wanda Richards, a professional home stager with Shows Great Home Staging, will feature room displays created from items available at the sale. Room displays will include: Traditional Bedroom, Art Deco Bedroom, Living Room, and Kitchenette. Wanda will also showcase economical before and after makeovers on several items.
